

I would like to express my opinion AGAINST allowing cellular telephones aboard commercial aircraft. The added level of noise created by yacking cell phone users would make air travel unbearable. It would certainly reduce any desire to travel by air.